Additional Information

The fees for wedding blessings are stipulated by the Church of England: we request a donation of 500 euros, or the equivalent in sterling, which is in addition to (if applicable) any costs attached to using premises other than the church. It is possible for residents of the UK to apply Gift Aid to this donation.

Information regarding other services (readings, music, flowers, etc.) can be provided, although the chaplaincy is not able to act as a full wedding planner, simply as provider of information.

Rehearsal:

- It is necessary to have a Wedding Blessing rehearsal beforehand to allow the Chaplain to go through the ceremony with you.
- All donations and expenses should be paid at the rehearsal, or by bank transfer before the rehearsal, with a receipt and/or transfer identification number provided for the benefit of the church treasurer.
- Please bring with you either your original or a photocopy of your Civil Marriage certificate for the Chaplain to see, thank you (or you can or send a copy in advance).

*Please note that the Ceremony and the Wedding Blessing do not constitute a legally recognised contract. This is a blessing of a Civil Marriage.
